Happy New Year!

I hope everyone had everyone had a Merry Christmas and a safe New Years. Winter seems to come in spurts with snow and cold giving way to more Spring like conditions.

As mentioned in the previous newsletter, I have secured 12 full service campsites at the Indian Creek Campground in Deer Lodge, MT for our Spring rally during Deer Lodge's Territorial Days Event. Anyone interested in attending this rally can make their reservations now by calling Danielle at (406) 846-3970. This number is for an oil company where she works during the Winter months. Please let me know if you make the reservations so I can keep track of the number of campsites spoken for. This way I can reserve more spots if needed. I highly suggest making your reservations as early as possible to secure your site.

Depending on the weather, we will be having an early Spring Rally at the Grey Bear fishing access campground to get our trailers out for the first time since having them stored to make sure everything is right for the camping season. We usually have this "Dust off the Cobwebs Rally" in either late April or early May. I will keep you posted.

Our December luncheon was a lot of fun at the Thirsty Turtle Restaurant in Big Timber. In attendance were; Teri and I, Ron Green, Fred and Patti Spillman, Tobias and Avis Stapleton, Jerry and Sue Smith, Harold Eggington and Pam Mann, and Paul and Sharon Lindstrom. Our next luncheon will be held Jan. 12th 12:00 noon at the Mint Café in Townsend, MT. If you plan to attend, please get in touch so I can let the Mint how many will be attending.

We still have not found someone to fill the empty Vice-President position. The duties include helping the President when called on to assist in the planning of events and to take on the role of President after they have fulfilled their 2-year term. In order for the Montana Airstream Club to survive, and not be dissolved, someone needs to step up. It isn't that hard.

That's all for now,
Mike Giao, President
